They combine catharite, diurctic, and tonic properties of, the greatest value, are a purely vegetable compound, and may be taken with perfect safety, clinic by chilidren or adults. E. L. Thomas, Franingham, Mass., writes: "For a number of years I was subject to 'tolent liteathcies stomach and bowels. About a year ago! commenced the use of Ayer's Pilis, and have not had a headache since." W. P. Ilannah, Gormiey P. O., York Co., Ont., writes: "In Awa used Ayer's Pilis for tha last thirty years, and can safely say that I have never found their equals as eatharile medicine. I am never without them in my house." C. D. Moore, Eigin, Ili., writes: "Indigestion, Headache, and Loss of Appetite, had so weskened and debilitated my system, that I was obliged to give care for two weeks, without getting any cellef, I began taking Ayer's Pilis. My appetile and strength returned, and I was soon enabled to resume my work, in perfect heath."
